

TELEMETRY DATA PROVISION

System Data. Dell may collect data on the configuration, operation, performance and use of Products and Services (“System Data”). System Data does not encompass any production data stored or processed by Customer on or with a Product or Service. Dell will treat any personal information collected in System Data with the applicable jurisdiction’s Dell Privacy Statement, all of which are available at www.dell.com/localprivacy and each of which is hereby incorporated by reference. System Data may be used by Dell to (a) support or carry out its provision of Products or Services to Customer, (b) enhance or propose enhancements to Customer’s use or expansion of Products or Services or (c) exercise or fulfill its legal rights and obligations (collectively referred to as the “Purpose”). Any transfer of System Data to third parties will be consistent with the Purpose and applicable laws, and subject to protections appropriate for confidential Customer information. Subject to any mandatory statutory rights of Customer and third parties, Dell shall exclusively own and retain all rights in System Data that is anonymized, i. e. that neither identifies Customer nor is personally identifiable with an individual (“Anonymized System Data”). Such data shall be considered Confidential Information of Dell, and Dell may use or share Anonymized System Data for any lawful technical or commercial purposes. Customer’s disablement of related telemetry collection features may entail disruption or disablement of the Product or Service, as advised by Dell in the documentation or otherwise. Additional information concerning System Data may be included in the applicable service offering description or product documentation.

rev. 15MAR2023