

Theme Writing Activity FREEBIE

A Story About Perseverance

Your job is to write a story that shows the theme of perseverance. You may write about yourself or a made up character.

Remember stories with this theme might:

1. Show someone who keeps trying and trying even if something is hard.
2. Have someone who wants to give up, but learns that they must try and try again.

It's Time to Plan:

My story is about: Me or Characters _____

The setting of my story is _____

These are the big events of my story that will show that my characters or myself learned a lesson about perseverance:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Here is how my story will end and learned: _____

A story about _____

A Story About HONESTY

Your job is to write a story that shows the theme of honesty. You may write about yourself or a made up character.

Remember stories with this theme might:

1. Show how someone learns that telling the truth is important
2. Show how doing the right thing is best even if it is hard to do or others may not like you/them.

It's Time to Plan:

My story is about: Me or Characters _____

The setting of my story is _____

These are the big events of my story that will show that my characters or myself learned a lesson about honesty:

1. _____
2. _____

and show the lesson _____

Writing on a Theme

This set of guided writing was designed to help students practice using and identifying 'theme' while writing their own story to demonstrate the specific theme discussed.

The two themes included in this packet are Perseverance and Honesty. Students follow the guided prompts to plan their story on either topic. Then then can draft or publish using the two included writing pages.
