The Combatant

A Che Guevara Enigma

Is it possible that more than 50 years after the assassination of Che Guevara, and after hundreds and perhaps thousands of biographers, analysts, journalists, and scientists researching the life and legacy of Che Guevara, it has not yet been discovered that one of Guevara's articles was published with a pseudonym in July 1967 in the most important journal of social sciences in Cuba, Pensamiento Crítico? The author of this book proposes an affirmative answer to this question.

Assistierter Suizid in Deutschland, BVerfGE 153, 182 als Ausgangspunkt für eine gesetzliche Neuregelung

Im Jahr 2020 erklärte das Bundesverfassungsgericht den § 217 StGB für nichtig. Die Autorin setzt sich mit diesem Urteil auseinander und geht der Frage nach, ob neue Gesetzesentwürfe zur Suizidbeihilfe als intensiver Eingriff des Staates in die Grundrechte mit den verfassungsrechtlichen Grundsätzen und dem Urteil in Einklang stehen. Dabei geht sie sowohl auf die Grundlagen der Strafrechtstheorie als auch auf allgemeine verfassungsrechtliche Anforderungen ein. Um dogmatische Fragen zufriedenstellend zu klären, bedient sich die Autorin interdisziplinärer Ansätze wie Rechtsgeschichte, Psychologie und Soziologie.

The main finding is that the variation in long-term institutional outcomes in these two cases can be explained by the differences in the structure and intensity of elite conflict.

La Révolution des féminismes musulmans

Élaboration théorique et agir féministe (2004–2014) Préface
d'Amina Wadud

Alors que l'intérêt croît autour de la politisation du corps des femmes musulmanes en Occident et dans les mondes musulmans, un nouveau profil de femmes à la fois féministes et musulmanes émerge. Il conteste à la fois un discours islamique exacerbé à l'endroit des femmes, tout en défiant la normativité d'une pensée féministe occidentale dominante.
